

I am going to be visiting
BeWILDerwood Cheshire.

You may feel...

About visiting
BeWILDerwood. That is ok!

Here is a social story to help you feel more comfortable.

BeWILDerwood is a huge forest full of family fun and outdoor adventure.

Depending on the weather will depend on the type of clothes you may need to wear.

If it has been raining, we suggest wearing wellies and bringing spare clothing.

As we will be visiting in Summer, we also suggest bringing insect repellent.

This is where you will park your car.

Accessible toilets can be found both inside and outside of BeWILDerwood.

This is where you will have your tickets checked.

If you need help at the event look out for those wearing the following outfits!

Once you are in, you will find this sign which will let you know when, where and what time activities will be taking place.

They have a gift shop also known as Bizarre Bazaar.

Be sure to read the slide rules,

There are over 18 areas to explore: Including Slippery Slopes

The Towering Treetop Tangles, and collect your foot sack before climbing the slide.

You will be able to meet & greet the BeWILDerwood characters, keep an eye out for this sign which will tell you the times.

During our event you will be able to meet: Thornycloud, Mildred (see image) & Hazel.

The Big Hat - an arts & crafts den

At our event the BeWILDerwood team will be helping you create Hootytwoos.

As well as listen to stories at the Storytelling Stage to name a few.

Here are some of the BeWILDerwood story characters.

Seating at the Storytelling Stage.

There are 2 food outlets available, cosy cabin which sells only cold food, drinks, ice-cream.

Located near: Toddlewood on the Hill

And the Munch Bar which sells both hot & cold food, drinks, ice-cream.

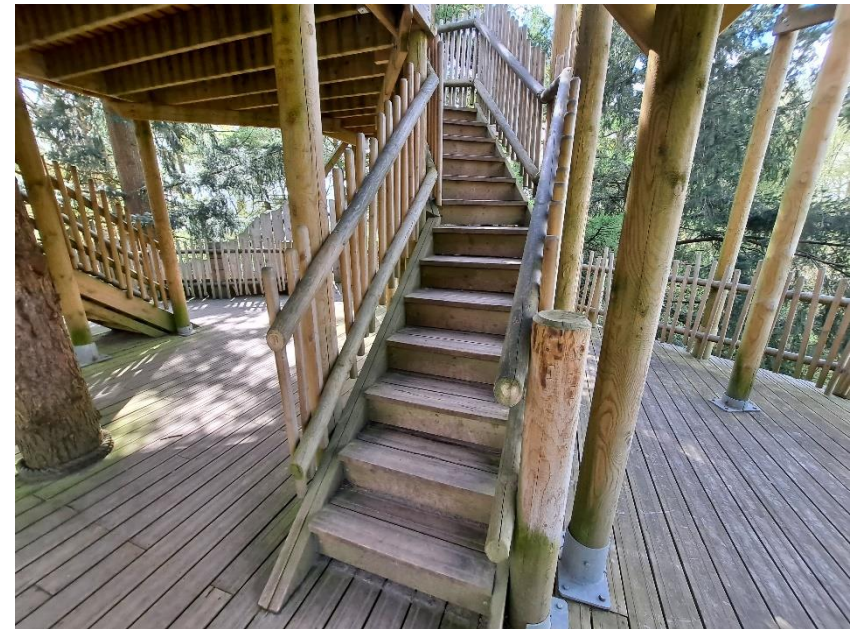

Located near: Storytelling Stage.

You will find both sheltered and non-sheltered picnic benches across BeWILDerwood.

The majority of BeWILDerwood's play structures are designed to incorporate physical challenges such as nets, balance beams and stairs.

During our event you may see Harley, our friendly photographer.

We hope you have a fantastic time at our event.

The A World UK Team.
